Objectives

• To provide attendees with a basic understanding of gender diversity within a school framework

• To provide attendees with information about how to create an environment that is inclusive of all children and adolescents

• To discuss how best to support all students around gender diversity, including those who identify as transgender and gender nonconforming

What are some of your goals and objectives today?
Key Terminology
Key Terminology
Allow everyone to self-identify

Sex

- Reproductive anatomy or external and internal genitalia (e.g. penis, vagina, gonads, reproductive tracts, etc.)
- Determines birth-assigned male or female sex (i.e. “natal sex”)

Gender Identity

Raise your hand if you have a gender identity

- A person’s internal, deeply-felt sense of being either male, female, something other, or in between (most have a strong sense between 4-6).

Gender Expression

- An individual’s characteristics and behaviors such as appearance, dress, mannerisms, speech patterns, and social interactions that are perceived as masculine or feminine (most begin expressing around ages 2-3).
Gender Development

• By 18-24 mo, children develop the ability to label gender

• Between 2-4 years, most children recognize gender differences, use gendered pronouns

• By age 5 to 6 years, most children declare a gender identity of male or female

• For most children, but not all, this identity is consistent with their sex-assigned at birth and remains constant across the lifespan

• Exploring gender is a very typical part of human development!

Key Terminology

Gender Nonconforming (gender expansive, gender variant, gender creative)

Gender expressions that fall outside of societal expectations for one’s sex-assigned at birth

- May (or may not) impact a person’s gender identity
  - Male assigned sex: “I am a girl and I like to express femininity.”
  - Male assigned sex: “I am a boy and I like to express femininity.”

- Long-standing occurrence (e.g., 6 months or more) – not a fleeting curiosity or interest

- Gender nonconformity is a normative variation of human diversity
Key Terminology

Sexual Orientation
- The gender to which one is romantically and/or sexually attracted

Cisgender (cis- “same side as”)
- Term used to describe people whose gender identity is congruent with biological sex
Transgender or Trans

• Individuals with an affirmed gender identity different than their sex-assigned at birth
• Umbrella term that encompasses diversity of gender identities & expressions
• Applies to identity, appearance, and behavior, but not necessarily body parts

An adjective, not a noun or a verb

a. Incorrect as noun: “She’s a transgender.”
b. Incorrect as verb: “That person is transgendered.”
c. Incorrect: “A transgendered person.”
d. Correct: “A transgender student/male/female”
There is no ONE right way to be transgender.

Cultural Norms

“The generally accepted rule is pink for boys, and blue for the girls. The reason is that pink, being a more decided and stronger color, is more suitable for the boy, while blue, which is more delicate and dainty, is prettier for the girl.”

-1918 Ladies Home Journal
Cultural Norms
What is the role of schools?
“When someone with the authority of a teacher, say, describes the world and you are not in it, there is a moment of psychic disequilibrium, as if you looked in the mirror and saw nothing.”

– Adrienne Rich, poet
Schools Play a Crucial Role in the Lives of All Students

Gender Impacts Everyone

• 50% of elementary bullying is based on gender and/or sexual orientation slurs (Holt, M., & Espelage, D., 2013)

• More than 50% report school as an unsafe environment for “not being as masculine as other guys or as feminine as other girls” (Holt, M., & Espelage, D., 2013)

How can you integrate discussions of diversity at home and at school?

Gender diversity, cultural diversity, diverse families and family structures Others?

Read a book, article, poem, or story that examines gender stereotypes

Why is it important to have these discussions?
What can you do?

1. Look for opportunities to explore how gender is conveyed
   ✓ Interpersonal interactions
   ✓ Separation in activities
   ✓ Choices offered by gender

2. Personally demonstrate inclusive behavior
   ✓ Allow everyone to self-identify

3. Personally interrupt gender stereotypes

“Walk the walk and talk the talk.”
Supporting Trans and Gender Nonconforming Students
Outcomes Tied to Rejection and Acceptance

- Students that are not supported are at increased risk of:
  - Depressive symptoms, low life satisfaction, self-harm, isolation, posttraumatic stress, incarceration, homelessness, and suicidality

- Students that are supported are tied to the following traits:
  - Positive self-esteem, high social support, positive mental health, less depressive symptoms, greater self-esteem, greater life satisfaction (compared with youth whose families were non-supportive)

Why Support for Trans Youth Matters

- Reported Life Satisfaction
  - Trans* Youth with Supportive Parents: 72%
  - Trans* Youth with Unsupportive Parents: 33%

- Reported High Self-Esteem
  - Trans* Youth with Supportive Parents: 64%

Psychosocial Risk

In a survey of transgender and gender-nonconforming adults, 41% had ever attempted suicide.

The national average is 4.6%.

What is Transphobia?

Like homophobia, racism and sexism, transphobia plays out in discriminatory acts directed toward a relatively powerless minority.

Because gender is one of the most firmly entrenched norms in western society, reactions to those who do not conform to the traditional female/male binary is often extremely severe.
Transphobia in School

What are some of the ways that transphobia may occur at school?

- Isolation
- Teasing
- Bullying
- Gossip
- Exclusion
- Physical and verbal harassment
- Theft

Others?

Addressing transphobia in school

• Proactive & Reactive
What is a transition?

- Process by which an individual begins living in their affirmed gender
  - Social
  - Medical
  - Legal
- May or may not include hormonal and/or surgical treatment
- No one way to be trans; therefore, no one way to transition.
Affirming Approach

The word ‘affirm’ is used to acknowledge the identity of an individual.

Shared tenets:

1. Gender variations are not disorders
2. Gender may be fluid (not always binary)
3. Follow appropriate guidelines/recommendations around best practices
How does gender inclusion fit in with Catherine Cook School’s mission?

Mission Statement

Catherine Cook empowers students from preschool through eighth grade to be adaptive, confident and productive stewards of an evolving world. Our community engages with ideals of cultural competence, progressive academics, ethical literacy, and innovation designed to inspire personal excellence and compassionate leadership.
Best Practices for Creating a Supportive School Culture

Fully include all students and families in the school community
1. Avoid gender segregation

2. Respect preferred name and gender pronoun (Including forms)

3. Implement inclusive dress code

4. School building must be a safe environment

5. Implement nondiscriminatory policies (explicitly include gender identity)

6. Adopt comprehensive policy for bullying and discrimination—market this policy and document harassment of trans and gender expansive students
7. Inclusive schools recognize and celebrate different types of diversity
   - It is liberating for all students to understand gender as non-binary—gender shouldn’t be seen as restrictive!
   - Curriculum examines gender stereotypes and diversity

8. All students should be encouraged to express themselves

9. Create a gender inclusive environment for all students
   - Practices
   - Subtle interactions
   - Policies (systemic strategies)
Becoming an Ally

1. Ask what a child or student would like you to do to be a good ally
2. Take the child or student’s gender identity and expression seriously
3. Demonstrate patience and flexibility
4. Acknowledge mistakes
5. Respect preferred name/pronouns
   Remember to always refer to transgender people by the name and pronoun that corresponds with their gender identity (even if you are not in their presence).
6. Do not out anyone (or allow anyone else to do so) without their consent.
7. Provide resources and support
Gender diverse students indicate their schools as the most common place where they first encountered physical abuse. Almost 2/3 of transgender adolescents were verbally harassed and 1/3 was subjected to physical harassment at school (Toomey et al., 2010, p.1582).

The National School Climate Survey indicated that 89.5% of transgender students do not feel safe in their schools (Urban, 2010, p.3).

Nearly half of transgender students report regularly skipping school because of safety concerns, impacting their ability to receive an education (GLSEN & National Center for Transgender Equality, 2012, p.6).

Nearly one in six (15%) of transgender and gender non-conforming students face harassment so severe that they drop out of school (GLSEN & National Center for Transgender Equality, 2012, p.6).
Common Challenges Parents/Caregivers Face

• Confusion about their child’s gender development

• Fear for child’s safety and well-being

• Sense of guilt regarding child’s gender identity or expression

• Fear of condemnation from people in one’s community
  – “What will people say seeing my little boy wearing pink?”
  – Being ostracized by a spiritual leaders/community
  – Fear of being reported by others for child abuse
Common Challenges Parents/ Caregivers Face

- Limit-setting with their children, particularly around aspects of early social transition - (e.g., when to wear gender-nonconforming clothing, accessories)

- Feelings and adjustment
  - Unconditional love
  - Grief/sense of loss
  - Regret and shame
  - Self-doubt
  (e.g., “Am I doing the right thing?”)
Common Challenges Siblings Face

- Feeling overshadowed by sibling
- Stress – signs can be acting out, behavioral problems, sadness, irritability
- Teasing of the sibling
- Grief regarding the loss of sibling’s gender
- Negotiating when (or if) to disclose their sibling’s gender-variance with others
Gender Inclusive Schools In Action!
Law & Policy in Schools

Golden Rule:
If a school treats students Equally and Equitably, it is on secure legal footing.
Student’s Rights In School

• Right not to be targeted for bullying or harassment—if school administrators become aware of harassment they have an obligation to take action to stop it

• Right to privacy concerning transgender status and gender transition
  – Any information recorded in school records must be treated as confidential and not disclosed to others without the consent of the student

• Right to wear clothing and otherwise present themselves in a way that is consistent with their gender identity
  – So long as the student follows the dress code that applies to all students

• Right to equal educational opportunities
  – Includes not being disciplined/excluded from school, athletic, or extracurricular activities, or other school events because a student is transgender
Legal Protections for Transgender and Gender Non-Conforming Students in School

• Title IX
  – A federal law prohibiting sex discrimination in schools. The US Dept. of Education has concluded that discrimination or harassment because a person is trans or gender nonconforming is illegal sex discrimination.

• Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act
  – Protects personal info about students in school records, and in most circumstances prohibits release of this information without consent

• First Amendment
  – Protects the right of students to free speech and freedom of expression, including expression of gender identity

• Equal Access Act
  – Requires all school-affiliated student orgs (such as GSA) to be treated equally.

Conversion Therapy Ban

- HB0217 Signed into law by Governor Rauner on 8/20/15 states that “Under no circumstances shall a mental health provider engage in sexual orientation change efforts with a person under the age of 18.”

- "Sexual orientation change efforts" or "conversion therapy" means any practices or treatments that seek to change an individual's sexual orientation, as defined by subsection (o-1) of Section 1-103 of the Illinois Human Rights Act, including efforts to change behaviors or gender expressions or to eliminate or reduce sexual or romantic attractions or feelings towards individuals of the same sex.

- "Mental health provider" includes school psychologists as defined in the School Code and social workers licensed under Clinical Social Work and Social Work Practice Act.
Catherine Cook Questions

- Why are we having this conversation?
- How can parents/schools support kids – how can we begin to expand definitions of gender at home & in school (eliminate stereotypes)?
- How do we support all kids everywhere along the continuum of gender?
- What are your suggestions for how to support adolescent students who are questioning their gender?
Other Questions?

1. Can you teach a child gender behavior to fit in? Won’t allowing children to express nontraditional genders cause them to be teased?

2. Can you teach a child gender behavior that is expected of their sex assigned at birth?

3. How do we support a student’s self-esteem?

4. If we are talking about gender, aren’t you discussing reproduction and sexuality?

5. Won’t students get confused if we speak about more than two gender options?

6. How should I respond when classmates ask questions such as, “Why is that student wearing a dress?”

7. Won’t discussing this encourage other students to be transgender?

8. What should I say if a parent asks about a transgender student?

9. Ideas about gender diversity go against the values we are instilling at home. Are you trying to teach my child to reject these values?

Additional Information/Resources
What is some language that you can use with to discuss a student that does not fit into traditional gender stereotypes?

To support a student who may be socially transitioning or has already transitioned?
Karen identifies female, is female and will be treated as a girl in every way. Karen wants us to use she/her pronouns and to be called Karen consistently by all staff and students. We will respect Karen and continue to use this name and female pronouns.

He wore a dress today because it makes him feel good and he likes it, just like I wore pants because that’s what I like.

Your classmate feels like a boy and he is boy. He has asked us to support him by calling him Bob and use he/him. This is just like how you like for us to call you Marco and use he/him.

Our friend feels like a girl inside and wants to be called Allison and for us to call her she/her. She also wants to wear types of clothes that make her feel good. What types of clothes make you feel good?

While you may have known Jim as Jackie last year he feels like a boy and identifies as male. We will show Jim support and respect by calling him Jim and using he/him pronouns consistently. Calling Jim by any other name or pronoun will not be tolerated.

Lauren cut her hair short because she likes the way it looks. There’s no such thing as “boys hair” it’s just hair! Do you like having short hair too?
School Scenarios
1. Nick identifies as male and would like to use the male restroom at his school. He expresses a male identity in and outside of school and uses he/him pronouns. When Nick goes to use the boy’s restroom another student stops him from entering and tells him, “you’re really a girl.” A staff member is notified and asks Nick to use the nurse’s bathroom.
2. A parent of a cisgender student calls you to ask about their child’s transgender classmate. This parent states, “I don’t want my daughter using the restroom with a boy. I believe that this is inappropriate and unsafe.”
“I can assure you that the safety, well-being and education of all students remain our highest priorities.”

“Of course I can’t talk about any individual student, just as I would never talk about your child.”

“I know this is new territory for many of us. Sometimes change is really challenging. Perhaps I can share some information with you about gender identity and transgender people?”

Source: “Schools in Transition” 2015
3. A student at your school has asked to be called a name and pronoun, different from what is on their birth certificate. One of your colleagues continues to refer to the student by their legal name and doesn’t use their preferred pronouns.

What might you say to this staff member?

How would you respond if it was one of your other students using a classmate’s previous name/pronoun?
4. Robert, 14 wore a skirt and blouse to school. Many students had questions about his outfit and the teacher felt that this was distracting. She sent him to the principal’s office with the request that he be sent home to change his clothes.
5. A student is overheard calling another student a “tranny” in the hallway during a passing period.

What are some ways that you could handle that conversation? Should the guardians be notified?
How could a video like “I Am Me” by Willow Smith be used to explore gender?
